Executor's List

Notwithstanding consulting with legal counsel, your duties as executor are to administer the will of the deceased in accordance with the law, and generally include the following:

Review the Will	Locate the will and review instructions. If there is no will, you need to file letters of administration. You may need a lawyer to expedite this process.
Arrange Funeral Services	Follow disposition wishes as written in the last will and testament.
Secure Property	Secure all personal residences if no one is living there. Change locks and alarm codes on all property. Arrange for all valuables to be secured on or off site. Insurance companies need to be notified, to ensure proper insurance is in place.
Inventory Assets	Document all valuables, cash, investments, property, vehicles etc. to ensure adequate accounting records are in place.
Arrange Meetings	Schedule meetings with: bank representative, lawyer, accountant, financial advisor and insurance broker/agent.
Cash on Hand	Ensure there are enough funds available to continue payment commitments.
Documentation	Secure all important papers/documents, from all sources.
Ensure Continuing Care	Make arrangements for children, pets and property.

Accounting	Draft or secure system to account for expenses/income.
Keep Activity Record	Record all your activities with regard to estate activities: phone calls, emails, meetings and tasks.
Apply for Benefits	Include all pensions or final entitlements.
Insurance Claims	Notify insurance companies to engage claims process.
Letters of Direction	Complete and file necessary notifications to known associations and services.
Pay Debts	Prioritize and pay any estate debts.
Final Accounting	Prepare a final account for the estate, listing all assets, liabilities, expenses, income, trusts and distribution of assets.
File Tax Return	Prepare final tax return and file for certificates of clearance.
Distribute Assets	Administer the disposition of assets in accordance with the will.
Donations	Donate or discard any assets not distributed through the will.
Collect Executor Fee	Receive compensation for estate administration.
Testamentary Trusts	Administer trusts as required by the will.
